

THE WEEKLY CLARION.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Northeast and Southwest railroad will be held at Eutaw, Alabama, on the 16th of January. This road is designed to run from Meridian to Chattanooga, and is therefore of much importance to East Mississippi. The road from Meridian to Port station—20 miles—is now used by the Selma road. We hope our friend Roberson will stir the people up on the subject of the Chattanooga railroad, and get the work completed.

THE CURRENCY.—We learn by Washington dispatches that it is distinctly understood a large and fixed majority of the House committee on banking and currency are opposed to any further inflation of the currency, and are determined to stand firmly by the recommendations of the Secretary of the Treasury. They consider that he has wrought the whole subject with care, and superior opportunities for information, and are willing to accord pre-eminence to his conclusions. A majority are also in favor of having only one kind of Federal paper currency, and are opposed to the issue of the national banks.

QUITE A DIFFERENCE.—An article of furniture arrived in this city a few days ago from New York, the freight on which from that city to New Orleans, was $5 52. From New Orleans to Jackson, via railroad, the freight charges amounted to only $14 35! Can't the Directors afford to reduce the tariff a little? We hear much complaint, and hope that the cause will soon be removed. Under its present management the road is deservedly popular and well patronized, and we are quite satisfied that the enlightened Board of Directors will not permit the continuance of any well grounded cause of complaint.

The Central Railroad.
The annual report of the President and Directors of the Mississippi Central Railroad Company for the year ending August 31st past, shows that the road is in a prosperous condition—much better than was generally expected. The road has been completely reconstructed and forms a highly important link in the continuous railroad chain which connects both sections. Of the matured indebtedness $1,115,400 have been taken up with second mortgage bonds. The report of the Secretary shows that the net income has been $297,002,570, or forty-nine per cent. of the earnings. Next year the Company expects to pay the interest on the debt and have an excess of $150,000. The original debt has been reduced to less than 4,000,000. The expenses of the year in reconstructing amount to $67,354.48. The road has transported 277,480,23 passengers and 28,696 bales of cotton during the year. The freight received and forwarded foots up $307,788.94. The Company has at present 36 locomotives, 22 passenger cars and 194 freight cars. Gen. West recommends the extension of the road to Paris, Tennessee, or to some intermediate point, which would enable him to more successfully compete with rival roads for freight and travel. Commercial interests in that direction have invited this extension and proffered a loan in furtherance of the same. Gen. West therefore recommends that the stockholders authorize the Board of Directors to negotiate a loan of five hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as they may deem necessary for the purpose. We are glad to see that Gen. West is able to give such a good account of his stewardship. The Mississippi Central railroad is one of the most important railroads in the State to our future prosperity, and its stock in a few years will command a high price. We are surprised to see that at present the bonds are only quoted at 67 cents, they should command at least ninety cents.

NEGROES IN MARYLAND.—General Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, has received several complaints from colored people in Maryland of being unjustly deprived of their children by the apprenticeship laws of this State. General Howard says: "The present state of the law is very perplexing. Several cases now on hand have been delayed by counsel for the master, but are now fixed for trial on the 27th instant. Petitions from the colored people for the release of their children are daily being sent to the assistant commissioner and they believe the General Assembly, which meets on the first January, will legislate so as to make these indentures legal."

We regret to learn that the health of the Hon. John Bell is quite feeble. During last week he was considered in a critical condition by his medical attendants, but at latest accounts was slowly recovering from his attack.

The Imperial Court of Rome, France, has just decided that the epithet "female" applied to a woman constituted an insult.

What is a Year?
What is a year? 'Tis but a wave
On life's dark rolling stream,
Which is so quickly gone that we
Account it but a dream.

'Tis but a single earnest thro'—
Of Time's old iron heart.
Which is so quickly gone that we
Account it but a dream.

What is a year? 'Tis but a turn
Of Time's old iron heart,
Which is so quickly gone that we
Account it but a dream.

'Tis but a step upon the road
Which we must travel o'er
A few more steps, and we shall walk
Life's weary rounds no more.

[Here is a pretty little gem—a diamond of the first water—by our favorite Southern poetess. The South has many good poets, and Mary Walsingham surely ranks among the best.]

FADING.
Stream gently through the window, sun—
Gently! she is sighing,
And bathes her brow and bosom wan—
Softly! she is dying.

Steal gently through the lattice, wind,
And ever hush thy lips to her sighing,
The parting kiss of summer bird—
Softly! she is going!

Fall gently round her, light of eve,
Thy crimson lustre shed—
A parting gleam of glory leave—
Softly! she is dead!

MARY WALSINGHAM.

The following extraordinary account of a determined attempt at suicide is gravely related by the Epoca, of Madrid:

The individual in question being tired of his life, resolved to take such measures as must infallibly insure his death. To that end he started for the sea-shore, provided with a ladder, a rope, a loaded pistol, a bottle of poison and a box of matches. Having some time before discovered a post standing a little way out in the water, he fixed his ladder against it, and ascending, fastened one end of the cord to the top and then passed a slip-knot around his neck, swallowed the poison, and striking a light, set fire to his clothes, then, placing the pistol to his ear, kicked away the ladder; but in doing so his hand swerved, and as he fired at the same moment, the ball, instead of penetrating his breast, as he intended, fell into the sea, and, reaching his burning garments; also a quantity of the salt water he swallowed caused him to throw up the poison he had taken, so that he scrambled on shore, convinced that his time had not yet arrived.

Gen. Carl Schurz wants to know how President Johnson and his friends Doolittle, Cowan, Dixon and others felt when they first met after their defeat in the election. But first let Gen. Carl tell how he and his officers felt when they first met after their common defeat by an inferior Confederate force in Virginia.

The Radicals are trying with all their might to prevent the restoration of the Union. They are against the Union. They are as much the Union's enemy as the Southern rebels were in the war. They deserve to be published as such.

Miss Mary Houk, a young woman who was terribly mistreated by a villain at Bowling Green, Kentucky, brooded over the outrage until she went hopelessly mad.
